

January newsletter

In January the rooms have been exploring animals, they have been learning how we look after animals and what animals they might find where. They have also used them to create some fantastic artwork. Also in January the children have took part in mini cooking lessons where they have helped to make biscuits, custard, bread and cakes!

